SAMOANS WILL ACCEPT RULING ENGLISH FINAL

(By Associated Press)
APIA, British Samoa, Mar. 1.— (By Mail).—The Samoans will accept as final the decision of Great Britain that the mandate over Samoa cannot be removed from the control of New Zealand without a decision of the League of Nations. It was announced today by Chief Toelue, leader of the house of native rulers, at a meeting.Great Britain's decision stated that the mandate had been granted Australia by the league as a reward for New Zealand's sacrifices in the war.
It came in reply to a letter from former King Malletto of Samoa, to the New Zealand minister of foreign affairs, in which he stated that he was opposed to the petition from Samoa representatives in the local government that the mandate be removed because of the alleged widespread dissatisfaction among the Sa-moans with the administration by New Zealand.

YOUNG WOMEN IN LOVE GIVEN TIMELY HINTS

(By Associated Press)
KALAMAZOO, Mich., Mar. 30.— Springtime, the time made for lovers, isn't going to mean so much this year to young women students at Kalamazoo college. That is, if the rigid regulations laid down by Miss Agnes Powell, the college dean of women, are obeyed. Following are some of Miss Powell's "don'ts.""Don't keep company with any young man longer than three hours at a time.""Don't keep company with any young man other than two nights a week.""Don't lean languorously against a wall or other support with a gentleman friend in front of you and brace only by his arm above your shoulder.""Now that spring is coming, don't look into the eyes of a gentleman friend with a languid expression."Girls at the college declare the regulations are too strict. The young men refuse to be quoted.

REMNANTS OLD WRECK BROUGHT TO SURFACE

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Mar. 11.—(By Mail).
Remnants of a wreck believed to date back to a Dutch-Spanish battle in 1641 have been brought to the surface by salvage workers in Lerwick harbor.Four ancient cannon, each seven feet long, with a three-inch bore, have been salvaged, and these have been supplemented by massive oak timbers which are in a good state of preservation.It is believed that the wreck is that of a Dutch warship which, with three East Indian men, was attacked by 10 armed ships of Dunkirk (then Spanish), in Gressay Sound, on June 13, 1641. After a fierce engagement, two of the Indian men were sunk and the third escaped, while the Dutch warship was compelled to surrender.

den change in the Chinese political situation, foreign diplomats have that a woman has presided over an official social function. The annual spring dinner parties given in honor

MARYSVILLE SHOULD BUILD BIG HOTEL FOR TOURISTS

(By Associated Press)
MARYSVILLE, Calif., Mar. 30.— Marysville, the "Gateway to Lassen National Park," should build a great tourist hotel, A. B. C. Dohman, San Francisco, one of the officers of the Yosemite National Park company, told an audience here recently.Twenty-five per cent of the conversation of tourists, Mr. Dohmann said, is about the country they have seen and the remaining 75 per cent is about the good or bad hotels they have visited.

FLATTERING MILLINERY

Three styles, characteristic of the season, are shown here. At the top a hat of bright blue tulle, piped with satin, has a beehive crown and a narrow satin-covered brim. It is trimmed with cherries pinned to the crown in clusters and bunched at the right side. A brilliant all-back hat, suited to older wearers, has a glittering fabric over its upturned brim and sprays of feathers at each side. The youthful hat at the bottom, employs ribbon and flowers to trim a shape covered with a novelty material. This hat is shown in several colors with little springtime blossoms massed against the upward-colling brim.Keep posted on local and foreign

TO REPRODUCE DAYS OF YORE IN SACRAMENTO

(By Associated Press)
SACRAMENTO, Calif., Mar. 30.— An army of carpenters started work today on the mining town which is to be one of the features of the big "Days of '49" celebration in Sacramento, May 23-28. Like magic, this "city within a city" is rising on the four blocks adjoining the Southern Pacific depot. Strung along the winding road will be scores of structures typical of the gold-rush period, while the whole camp will be alive with the kaleidoscopic action of '49. Priceless relics, thousands of them, collected in the vast mining sections of the days of gold, will be assembled here. Never before has such an ambitious effort been made to reproduce the type of community made famous in the writings of Bret Harte. Every section of the old gold-digging districts has contributed to the $250,000 layout as represented in the mining town.
